CASTALIA (NYMPHAEA) BRAKELEYI ROSEA

Improved Pink Water Lily

A new magnificent hybrid from the best form of Castalia tuberosa crossed with the rare Cape Cod Pink Water Lily. The original plant produces leaves 16 inches in diameter and flowers 8 inches across, of a beautiful pink, the richest and most powerful fragrance of the hardy varieties. $2 each, $16 for 10. Special prices per 100.

NATIVE FERNS

A fine collection of hardy native Ferns suitable for park and cemetery planting, including the following varieties:

Adiantum pedatum,	Dryopteris spinulosa,	Osmunda, in 3 vars.,
Dryopteris acrostichoides,	Dicksonia punctilobula,	Polypodium vulgare,
Dryopteris marginalis,	Onoclea sensibilis,	Pteris aquilina, and others.

Strong, nursery-grown clumps at $4 per 100, $35 per 1,000; collected at $10 to $15 per 1,000.

AMPELOPSIS ENGELMANNI

This is the clinging form of the well-known Virginia Creeper, and was introduced by us several seasons ago. The leaves are much thinner and smaller than in the ordinary variety, and the whole plant lacks the coarseness that characterizes the A. quinquefolia, and it clings to walls like the ivy. The fall coloring is exceedingly brilliant. A fine stock ready for fall delivery.

	Per 100	Per 1,000

Heavier	7 00	60 00

GINSENG (Aralia quinquefolia)

A revised edition of my illustrated pamphlet on the subject of Ginseng culture will be mailed on receipt of 10 cents. This is the best work published, and gives full instructions, enabling anyone to grow this extremely valuable root. Price-list of seeds and plants free.

ALL THE BULBS AND PLANTS listed above can be expressed during August and September, or can be held and shipped with freight orders for trees and shrubs in October and November, but orders should be placed now to insure stock being reserved.

HARDY AMERICAN SHRUBS AND TREES

Our stock of fine and rare plants for fall delivery is larger than ever, and the damp season being exceptionally favorable, it has made an extra strong, vigorous growth. A splendid variety of Azaleas, Andromedas, Hemlocks, Leiothymus, etc. Write for special advance prices.

RHODODENDRONS, KALMIAS, LEUCOTOEAS, GALAX and other fine shrubs and plants for use in massing effects, we collect by the car-load in fine clumps for immediate effect with perfect success. Special prices made and correspondence solicited.

We publish a unique catalogue, dealing entirely with Native Plants and filled with original illustrations, and send it to any address. Also a wholesale catalogue for the trade only.
